

2025 Annual Session Evening Course Offerings

Theme: “Knowing God’s Word to Navigate thru the World” Psalm 119:105

General Courses

In the “Mourning”– Certified Death Doula– Mrs. Monette Harmon

Grief is a fundamental part of life, something we will all experience. While navigating life’s toughest challenges after the loss of a loved one is an inevitable part of our journey, there are ways to tap into your inner strength, rise above the pain, and ultimately, emerge stronger, wiser, and more resilient. Let’s Talk About it . (Psalm 30:5)

Are You Under the Umbrella – Rev. Elizabeth Hodge

How do you handle life when it presents one storm after another? When storms come use the umbrella. The storms of life do not have a respective person, so when they come, we need to know what coverage we can expect; presence, protection, peace, persevere and submit to the Father so he can make us more like Christ. (Matthew 11:28; Matthew 8:24-27, Mark 4:39)

Developing Skills for Sharing Your Faith – Rev. O. J. Newburn

This seminar is designed to equip believers to confidently and lovingly communicate the message of Jesus Christ. (Acts 8:40)

Mobilizing Men for Meaningful Ministry - Rev. Ray Murphy

This seminar is designed to engage and retain men by equipping, encouraging, and empowering them to use their God-given gifts, passions, and leadership to serve others, build the church, and impact their communities in ways that align with God’s purpose and help them cultivate godly character. Come together and learn how to engage and retain them. (Ephesians 6:10-17; 1 Corinthians 16:13-14; Hebrews 10:24)

Facing the Giants in Your Life – Rev. Demetrius Crum

We realize that the giants will challenge you but they're not greater than God. You may not have all the answers but when we bring our battles to God, we are not fighting alone. (1 Samuel 17:47)
